About the Chorus Teacher

Donna has advanced credentials and certification as a vocal/choral music teacher. She has 24 years experience both in public school teaching, private teaching, church, and community. Her public school choruses have received highest scores at local and state festivals and Donna has been a guest conductor at NWACDA conference. Donna is a professional member of National Association of Teachers of Singing and offers the best to her students.

Chorus Class for Homeschoolers: Tuesdays 1:00-1:45 p.m.

Children grades 1-6 will learn vocal development for the child voice, singer's habits to improve technique, singing in unison, partner songs, and countermelody, kodaly ear training, and how to sing with others in a group. Practice at home will be encouraged. A variety of sacred, folk, and standard traditional chorus music will be used and age appropriate. Children will be able to perform in a recital at the end of the semester. The commitment is for the semester Feb 6-May 22. There will be no class the week of spring break on March 13. Children are to be dropped off no earlier than 5 minutes prior to class time and picked up on time at 1:45 p.m. Bring nothing extra.

Cost: $240 per child, includes materials and recital. Full payment at the time of registration Dec 1-8 mailed in with this form. Families enrolling multiple children may have 2 installments, the second one due Feb. 1. There are no refunds for missed classes and classes are not made up. If there is a cancellation due to weather, make-up time will be offered.
