The curriculum and instruction involves: Getting to Know You, the class members, developing a feeling of safety and acceptance, communicating with people of similar age; Creative Drama, Developing Your Voice, Improvisation and Role Play, Introduction to Characterization. Much of our strategies will be in the form of games with specific objectives for teaching the concepts. Theatre 2 will be offered the following semester.

Expectations: Parents drop off on time, not early, a class will be leaving before you. Students should come dressed in clothes ready to move and sit on floor and bring nothing else. Coats and shoes off at door. This class involves collaboration and cooperation with peers and everyone should be positive and be here because they want to. Have fun!
